

MANY MICHIGAN POLITICIANS ON WITNESS STAND

Testimony is Considered Important by Attorneys

OBJECTIONS ARE NUMEROUS

[By Associated Press.] GRAND RAIDS, Mich., Feb. 4.—Two bits of testimony, given today in the trial of Senator Truman H. Newberry and six score Michigan politicians, were considered by government attorneys as important to the charge of conspiracy which they are seeking to establish.

James Sweeney, head of the New York bureau of a Detroit newspaper, testified that Frederick Cody, a defendant, told him in New York:

"The lid is off in Michigan and the sky is the limit."

Walter Chappelle, editor of a country weekly at Harrisville, Michigan, testified that Benjamin F. Reed, deputy state labor inspector and another defendant, had solicited to become a county chairman in the Newberry organization and told him:

"The freight will be paid."

All told, eighteen witnesses were on the stand today and practically all of them testified in the face of a general objection by the defense. The objection entered as witness after witness took the stand, and overruled by the court, was to the effect that the government had failed to prove a conspiracy existed to violate the federal election and postal laws, and that therefore the individual acts of defendants could not be offered in evidence at this stage of the proceedings.

Judge Clarence W. Sessions held that government counsel had a right to marshal their testimony as they saw fit.

The government forces were in turn frequently overruled when they tried to confine cross-examination of their witnesses strictly to the material developed by the direct questioning. Defense attempts to search the motives of witnesses in certain campaign acts were, however, halted by the court. The defense contended that such testimony would go to the very essence of the conspiracy charge, but Judge Sessions ruled that it was not proper cross-examination.

The question came up squarely in the cross-examination of Lyle Shanahan, an attorney from Charlottesville, and one of the organizers of the committee of three which had charge of the Newberry campaign in his county. Shanahan testified that he had received $40 from John B. Harris, chairman of the committee and one of the defendants. W. H. Elchorn, questioning for the government, drew from Shanahan that he had used $5 of that amount to pay a challenger at the primary polls but had not accounted for the remainder.

"You understand," volunteered the witness, "that Judge Harris did not tell me that this was Newberry money and that I was a Newberry man before the committee was organized."

Martin W. Littleton, on cross-examination asked if Shanahan considered that he had done any wrong in accepting the money, bringing a successful objection from Frank C. Dailey, assistant attorney general.

Shanahan testified further that he had spent $12 to $15 in collecting primary returns by telephone, that many persons crowded his office that evening and that he had the place cleaned the next day.

"That constituted my expenses in the campaign," he said.

Similarly the government blocked questioning of Chappelle as to his ideas of the morality of the expression regarding "freight."

The campaign of James W. Helme for the Democratic senatorial nomination, was again brought into the trial through the testimony of Van A. Loomis, a deputy sheriff and private detective from Jackson. Loomis sparred with Mr. Dailey considerably before telling the jury that he had been hired by Charles V. Deland, a defendant, to circulate nominating petitions. He admitted receiving twenty dollars for the work and said he had partially filled two petitions having space for 25 names each. He would not attempt to estimate how much he got for each name.

Among the witnesses were a number of stenographers and typists employed at Newberry campaign headquarters in Detroit. They named numerous defendants they had seen about the offices, told of being paid in cash and some of them related that there was a cash chest in the campaign headquarters. The successive entries of the smartly dressed women cause a succession of stir in the court, from that grew until the United States marshal was forced to restore decorum to the proceedings.

URGES ADDITIONAL SEDITION LEGISLATION

Palmer Outlines Further Wants to Members of House Judiciary Committee.

[By Associated Press.] Washington, Feb. 4.—Additional anti-sedition legislation, simple in character and guarding the guarantees of the bill of rights but covering the "hiatus" in present statutory laws, was urged by Attorney General Palmer today before the house judiciary committee.

Upholding the right of free speech and constructive criticism, the attorney general protested against pending measures which he said were "too drastic and far reaching and so searching that they over-reach their purposes." More harm than good would come from repressive legislation, he added.

Mr. Palmer told the committee that the vigor with which the department of justice had acted, together with its notice to law breakers of the strong and positive intention of the government to punish crimes, had had the effect of maintaining such order in the United States as would have been otherwise impossible.

"But there is no existing statute adequate to meet the present situation," Mr. Palmer told the committee. "There is a condition of revolutionary infamy in the country on the part of both aliens and citizens which is sufficiently wide-spread to merit serious consideration of congress."

Citizens' rights should always be guarded, the attorney general said, adding that he agreed with those who criticized the Graham-Sterling bill—on this ground.

"But I do not agree with those who object to the bill because they believe that acts of violence should be met with argument only and not by the firm hand of federal statute," he asserted.

The Duvey bill, drawn originally by Mr. Palmer and introduced in the house last November, the attorney general said, was adequate for the present emergency.

ENRIGHT MURDER REMAINS UNSOLVED

CHICAGO, Feb. 4.—The murder of Maurice Enright, labor leader and the last of four notorious Chicago gunmen whose body was riddled with bullets in front of his home last night, remained an unsolved mystery tonight.

More than two score of suspects were taken in a police roundup last night, and today many of them known to have been opponents of Enright's in the numerous labor wars in which he engaged. All were questioned, but a number were released when no evidence connecting them with the shooting affair could be found.

While the haunts of suspected gun men were being searched for Enright's slayers, the police also were making efforts to arrest a gun man's war, which loomed tonight as a possibility.

"The labor gangs settle their own disputes in their own way," Chief of Police Garrity said. "They've been after Enright for a long time and now that they've got him his friends are going to take up the job of paying back."

Enright was the twenty-third labor leader to pay with his life for his share in labor wars in Chicago in the last 10 years.

DISCHARGE JUROR AFTER ACCEPTANCE

TOMBSTONE, Ariz., Feb. 4.—Disqualification of Frank Berg, a farmer, as a juror today after he had been passed by both prosecution and defense 24 hours before created the first stir in the trial here of Harry E. Wooten, hardware dealer of Bisbee, charged with kidnapping in connection with the deportations of 1917.

Berg was recalled by the defense attorneys for further examination and questioning concerning a statement he was alleged to have made Monday in the court room while waiting to be called as a juror to the effect "it was a shame good men had been deported and families broken up."

Berg said he did not recall having made the statement and the defense called Thomas Egan, another of the defendants to the stand. Egan testified he had heard Berg make such a remark. The defense then challenged Berg and he was excused by the court.

EXAMINATION OF MARTENS CONTINUES

WASHINGTON, Feb. 4.—Renewal of assertions that Soviet Russia had undergone a complete change of heart since the days when it was urging world-wide and universal revolution against constituted governments, marked today's examination of Ludwig C. A. K. Martens, Soviet representative in the United States, by the senate committee investigating Russian propaganda. Martens began reading a series of prepared statements on the subject, but was interrupted by Senator Moses, New Hampshire, chairman of the committee, who ruled against continuing the record with propaganda.

MANY CHANGES IN STATE JUDICIAL SYSTEM PROPOSED

Widespread Interest in Reformation of State Laws

DELEGATES HAVE A BUSY DAY

[By Associated Press.] Springfield, Ill., Feb. 4.—Numerous proposals for changes in the judicial system of the state, apparently indicating a widespread interest in a reformation of the present court system, caused the rules committee of the Illinois constitutional convention today to set aside next Wednesday for an open hearing on the subject. The convention meeting as a committee of the whole will hear speakers who may discuss the topic.

An invitation to address the meeting will be extended Hiram T. Gilbert of Chicago, and Judge Harry Olson, chief justice of the municipal courts of Chicago. Delegate Amos Miller of Kenilworth, who has a proposal in the convention for a change in the judicial system, will also speak.

The committee on initiative referendum held its first meeting today and decided to have an open hearing February 17. Chairman F. R. Dove of Shelbyville, said he and other members of the committee had reached no conclusion so far on the subject with which the committee has to deal. No proposals have been introduced as yet on this subject.

Other committees which held sessions today were the suffrage committee, of which delegate William H. Cruden is chairman, the military committee, headed by Colonel William H. Beckman of the Fourth Illinois Infantry; the committee on legislative affairs; the committee on corporations and co-operative organizations and the judiciary committee.

Members of the suffrage committee are practically unanimous that the new constitution should grant complete suffrage to women, according to reports. Suffrage leaders will be asked to appear before the committee however.

At the meeting of the legislative committee consideration was given a proposal by Lewis A. Jarman of Rushville, which provides for twenty-five Senators and one hundred representatives. Former Governor Joseph P. Fifer of Bloomington, who participated in the discussion, said that in his judgment the Jarman proposal would prevent crooks in both parties from conspiring and cross-firing to get their men in the legislature.

The committee of education at a meeting tonight decided to hear representatives of Chicago and down-state teachers on their propositions for amending revenue laws so that they may obtain salary increases.

The program for the Lincoln day ceremonies which the today ceremony will be announced today. It includes addresses by Delegates Clinton L. Conkling of Springfield, Joseph W. Fifer of Bloomington, Frank J. Quinn of Peoria and Levy Mayer and Edward H. Morris of Chicago.

The campaign, according to Mr. Ackley, will be directed chiefly against speculators, who he said had bought old buildings and raised rents out of proportion to the investment. Mr. Ackley said these speculators were responsible for nine out of ten cases of profiteering in rents.

Beginning May 1, the average modern apartment will be rented at the rate of $25 a room, it was said, in real estate circles.

REPORT MANY CASES OF SLEEPING SICKNESS

Following Influenza Epidemic Which is Sweeping Thru Central Illinois.

Springfield, Ill., Feb. 4.—Following in the wake of the influenza epidemic which is sweeping Illinois, numerous cases of "sleeping sickness" are being reported to the state department of public health, Dr. C. St. Clair Drake said today. In practically every case this fatality has followed an infection of influenza, Dr. Drake said.

The disease is not the same as the African "sleeping sickness" of which there have been only a few cases in Illinois since its discovery many years ago, according to the director of public health. The disease was prevalent following the influenza outbreak last year and methods of treatment are being investigated.

A gradual decrease in new influenza cases is shown by reports to Dr. Drake from the entire state. The total number of new cases reported today was 4,054. The total Tuesday was 3,469 and Monday's total was 5,339.

Requests for medical assistance have been received from Chambersburg in Pike county and Macedonia in Hamilton county. The state department of public health has called for physicians to volunteer for service in these communities during the epidemic.

PROMISES RELIEF OF CONGESTED ELEVATORS

Hines Orders Every Available Box Car Equipment Turned to Grain Transportation.

Washington, Feb. 4.—To remedy congested conditions of grain elevators through out the middle west, Director General Hines today issued general orders to railroads serving the grain producing areas which, in effect, turn all available box car equipment to the grain transportation service to the exclusion of practically all other traffic.

The orders provide for the special movement of grain during the ten day period beginning February 8. Railroads affected serve the states of Illinois, Minnesota, Montana, Missouri, Iowa, North Dakota, South Dakota, Nebraska, Oklahoma, Colorado, Wisconsin, Kansas, Arkansas, Texas, and New Mexico.

Explaining his action, Mr. Hines issued the following statement: "Because of the imperative necessity of providing greater movement of bulk grain, the grain loading railroads serving the grain producing states have been given instructions to give preference and priority to the furnishing of box cars for bulk grain loading from February 8 to February 18, inclusive, after providing for the loading of less-than-carload merchandise, print paper, wood pulp and sugar. This means that to the extent necessary to fill requirements, all available box car equipment, suitable for use in the handling of these commodities, will be confined to this one class of traffic."

J. R. Putnam, manager of the Southern Pine Association, advocated to his building as a prevention of fire.

The directors elected men and active in state and national politics, ten years ago died in his home here last night of pneumonia.

SENATE AND HOUSE CONFEREES AGREE ON RAILROAD BILL

Anti-Strike Provision of Cummins Measure Cast Aside

FINAL REPORT NEXT WEEK

[By Associated Press.] WASHINGTON, Feb. 4.—Casting aside the anti-strike provision of the Cummins bill, which labor has leveled protests and threats, and modifying the rate making clauses of the same measures, Senate and House representatives late today reached virtually a complete agreement on legislation designed to meet conditions growing out of the return of the railroads on March 1 to private control. For the anti-strike provision the joint committee agreed to substitute what in effect amounts to compulsory submission of wage disputes to a federal board appointed by the president.

A number of minor differences remain to be composed but these, Senator Cummins of Iowa, chairman of the Senate managers, said would be worked out by himself and Chairman Esch of the House conferees. A final report on the legislation is anticipated late this week.

Agreement on the Esch bill, passed by the House and the Cummins bill, enacted by the Senate, broke a dead-lock of several weeks due principally to the anti-strike provision of the latter measure. House members also have opposed the Senate rate making section.

The conferees struck out the clause of the Senate bill which would virtually make strikes illegal by penalizing railroad employees or employers for entering into conspiracies to interfere with interstate commerce and provided instead settlement of labor disputes by boards composed equally of employees and employers. The findings of these boards must be approved by a federal board appointed by the president with the Senate's approval to which appeals must be taken in cases in which agreements are not reached by the other boards.

All classes of railroad employees, Senator Cummins said, are to have representation upon the lower wage boards. Since the government will not be represented upon these boards, the Senator explained, settlement of labor disputes cannot be made compulsory but it is compulsory that in event of disagreement the dispute be referred to the federal board for settlement.

Under the agreement on the rate making section, a return of 5-1/2 per cent upon the net rail rate operating income is guaranteed for a period from eighteen months to two years after the bill becomes a law.

Provision is also made in the compromise that with the interstate commerce commission's approval, one-half of one per cent of the earnings may be given to the railroad responsible for the earnings and used for such unproductive improvements as erection of terminals or elimination of grade crossings. Fifty per cent of the earnings in excess of the six per cent will go to the railroad producing the excess return while the other half goes to a railroad contingent fund administered by the commission and used for the purchase of rolling stock and other equipment to be rented to the weaker roads to whom loans from this fund also may be made.

The bill as compromised further authorizes the interstate commerce commission to prescribe rates which will yield revenue by which this fixed return may be guaranteed and after the termination of the period during which this return is effective, the commission is authorized to agree upon the percentage of return and fix rates accordingly in order to insure its continuation.

Another important section agreed upon by the conferees and which is expected to prevent much state litigation provides that the interstate commerce commission may suspend or change rates during the six months period after the roads are released by the government.

E. P. RIPLEY DIES AT CALIFORNIA HOME

Known as One of the Best Railroad Officers in Country—Head of Santa Fe System.

[By Associated Press.] Santa Barbara, Calif., Feb. 4.—E. P. Ripley, chairman of the board of directors of the Santa Fe railroad system, died here this afternoon at four o'clock.

Edward Payson Ripley was one of the best known railroad officials in the country. He was president of The Santa Fe System for many years. He started his business career as a clerk in a wholesale dry-goods house in Boston. He entered the railroad business when he was 21 as a clerk in the freight department of the Boston office of the Pennsylvania road. In 1876 he became a clerk in the Boston office of the Chicago, Burlington, and Quincy railroad, his duties connecting him with both the freight and passenger departments. Two years later he was made the New England freight and passenger agent of the company with headquarters in Boston.

In 1887 when the office of the traffic manager was created by the directors of the road, his special excellence in this department was recognized by his appointment to fill it. He then moved to Chicago and made this city his permanent home.

The next year he was made a general manager of the Chicago Burlington and Quincy railroad and on June 1, 1890, resigned this position to become third vice president of the Chicago, Milwaukee and St. Paul railroad. He resigned January 1, 1896 to become president of the Santa Fe system, a position he held many years. At one time he was a director in fifteen railroad companies.

He was born in Rochester, Massachusetts, October 1, 1845 and came from an old New England family. Mr. Ripley graduated from the Rochester, Massachusetts high school, when he was 17 years old.

He made a specialty of the traffic department of railroad operation and for many years was regarded as one of the best informed traffic men in the country. He was an able speaker and writer on railroad questions, and had rare executive ability and was one of the most popular of railroad officials. He married Frances E. Harding of Rochester, Mass., October 4, 1871 and four children were the result of the union.

Many years he lived at Riverside, Illinois, a suburb of Chicago and spent the winters in Southern California.

G. O. P. LEADERS MAPPING OUT CAMPAIGN ISSUES

Hays Returns to Capital from Swing Around U. S.

CHIEFS ARE OPTIMISTIC

[By Associated Press.] WASHINGTON, Feb. 4.—Plans for the work of the committee of 171 which is to formulate recommendations for this year's Republican national platform, got actively under way today with the return to Washington of Will H. Hays, the party's national chairman, after a two months' swing around the circle.

The committee's immediate task as mapped out by the party chiefs, is the collection of opinions of more than twenty matters of domestic concern, with probable creation of a number of sub-committees to deal separately with the various proposed planks. Foreign relations will be passed over for the present, the committee awaiting the trend of the peace treaty fight to develop a decision on that subject.

Party leaders in senate and house met today to outline what they hoped to accomplish by convention time.

Oppose Committee Plan

The meeting, which took place in the office of Senator Lodge, majority leader of the senate, was accompanied by a renewal of the opposition to the committee plan which developed in some quarters when it was announced several weeks ago. Although it was stated the practicability of the move was not criticized during the conference, there were some questions asked which led Senator Watson of Indiana, who has been selected to lead the resolutions committee at the convention, to make a spirited defense of the project.

Meantime, it became known that two senators, Moses of New Hampshire, and McCormick of Illinois, had declined to serve on the committee, because they found themselves out of sympathy with that method of preparing platform recommendations. Senator Moses is the manager of Washington headquarters for General Wood.

As outlined, the work of the committee does not contemplate that the full membership shall be assembled at any stage of the pre-convention work. Most of its deliberations will be carried on by correspondence through its executive secretary and through the heads of separate groups if it is decided to create them to deal with special objects.

Platform Material. Among the subjects selected as possible platform material, and on which opinions will be collected and tabulated, are business relations, the tariff, changes in adjustment of foreign exchange and commerce, postal reforms, better labor conditions and a review of the democratic administration.

After the conference today Chairman Hays said, however, that there had been no attempts so far to reach definite conclusions, and that the whole work of the committee still was in a formative stage.

In a statement tonight regarding his trip to the Pacific coast, Mr. Hays declared he found a general sentiment everywhere in favor of Republican success in the campaign and enumerated the subjects, all of them of a domestic character, which he found the people thinking. The statement follows:

"Everywhere I find the people, regardless of past party affiliations, seeking Republican success, moved with the conviction that by such a success they will make certain."

"First, an honest, efficient, economical business administration of the country's affairs."

"Second, that there will be developed and executed a plan for the reduction of taxes, with the repeal of taxes which kill initiative and the spreading of the war debt over a larger number of years."

"Third, that there will be developed a better relation between labor and capital, with justice to both, and with justice to the public, the third side of the triangle, which must not be forgotten."

"Fourth, that there shall be an administration of law and order everywhere in the nation."

"Fifth, that the party will measure its steps forward by the new needs of the nation, with its eyes always ahead, but with its feet always on solid ground."

There is not the usual falling of the water wagon this year. "Reform" is here to stay.

Silver has come back in value sufficient to satisfy the old time dreams of the Alliance.

If the Kaiser is ever tried, why not arraign some others as "accessories before the fact?"

The czar did not stay in power long enough to tear Austria to pieces, but the poor old kingdom fell apart.

We are said to have lost $700,000,000 in government management of railroads. About enough.

Mr. Pickering, collector of internal revenue left a number of farms in a puzzled state, when somebody asked about two neighbors exchanging forty-acre pieces of land, for pieces of equal value exchanged on even trade terms. They were informed they would be expected to pay an income tax on the profit. But there wasn't any profit to either side, for the forties were alike in value. There was an explanation which said likely each of the forties is more valuable than it was in 1913, the date to which the federal statute goes back to fix a value on land. The increased value is "profit" and somebody wants income tax on this. Of course the brethren did not understand this, and no more does anybody else. Each neighbor could keep his forty and have no income tax to pay, that is he could keep a thing just as valuable as what he got in the trade. He doesn't make a dollar in the trade, and yet "profit" is figured out, or perhaps it would be better to say is imagined.

HOW IT GREW.

There is no liberty in Bolshevism. It has been tried conspicuously twice—in France in 1871 and recently in Russia. Informed people know that there was no liberty in the 1871 commune nor is there liberty in Russia today. Liberty neither for the Russian middle class nor for the Russian workingman. Whatever Bolshevism there is in the United States today is the result of a failure of eternal vigilance. The poor oppressed, came to these shores in swarms and Americans took them as a matter of course and gave no thought to them at all.

Little or no attempt was made to educate them, to enforce decent conditions of living among them, to teach them the true meaning of democratic liberty or to gain their good will as neighbors in a common community. Ignorance was permitted to stew in its own rotten juices and it brought forth a dish of I. W. Wism and Bolshevism.

BRITTEN SAYS "REDS"

Congressman Britten of Illinois has received information that leads him to believe that trouble on the transport Poughat was brought about by the action of Bolsheviks in her crew. Mr. Britten has introduced a resolution asking the Secretary of War to supply the House with copies of reports from the masters of transports that indicate the existence of bolshevism on board their vessels. Special mention is made in the resolution of the transport America, on which a mutiny occurred not long ago. "It is understood," says the Congressman in his resolution, "that mutiny, theft, gambling, and insubordination exist on transports."

THE BANKING POWER.

The comptroller of currency sends out a statement that a geographical analysis of the November 17, 1919, returns of the National Banks of the country, and a comparison of the present resources just twenty years before, or say on September 7, 1899, not only furnishes convincing evidence of the stupendous and unprecedented growth of this country's banking power, but the comparison is particularly significant in another respect, for its emphasizes the wide-spread distribution of the country's wealth and the decentralization of its banking power.

Twenty years ago the banking power of the country was mainly concentrated in the East; and the National Banks in the New England and Eastern States, comprising six per cent of the territory of the continental United States, held about sixty, or to be exact 59.87 per cent of the total resources of all the National Banks of the country. Since that time the resources of the National Banks in the New England and Eastern States have increased $7,710,937,000 or 277 per cent; but the proportion of the National Bank resources in those States to the resources of all National Banks is now 46.78 per cent of the total instead of 60 per cent. In September, 1899, the proportion of the total resources of all National Banks in the Middle Western States was 25.64 per cent. Since then the resources of these banks have increased $4,333,390,000 or 363 per cent. The proportion of their resources to the resources of all National Banks is now 24.62 per cent.

GRIEF

Some one's viewing with alarm, everywhere I chance to stray, overlooking all the charm of the genial winter day. When I leave my squalid hut, fifteen minutes after eight, I am quite a cheerful nut, and I have my smile on straight. All the world looks good to me, soothing to the heart and mind, every doggone thing I see seems a winner of its kind. But before I walk a block I encounter some poor simp, who puts up a doleful talk from a soul that's pale and limp. He admits the skies are bright, that the sun is going some; "but," he says "some time tonight forty kinds of storms will come." Everywhere I chance to go, some one's viewing with alarm, handing out big chunks of woe, which will do my spirit harm. When I've walked a half a mile, and have talked with seven guys, I have lost my sunny smile, and the briny fills my eyes. It is always thus, my friend, in the city, on the farm; every place I chance to wend, some one's viewing with alarm.

DR. COPE TO ADDRESS COMMUNITY FORUM

An unusual speaker with an up-to-date message is Dr. R. F. Cope, president of the International Religious Education Association. He is the editor of a bi-monthly magazine and the author of several books. Next Sunday evening he will address the Community Forum at the Congregational church. Like Frank M. Sheldon, the speaker of three weeks ago, President Cope has specialized in the field of education. He has lectured on chautauqua platforms, before teachers institutes and club audiences; he is a magnetic speaker and gets a tremendous hold upon his audience.

PEGGY HYLAND

The Star of

"Persuasive Peggy"

was fitted in this production with a story that everybody will like and appreciate. It deals with the early married days of a beautiful young bride and her wealthy farmer husband, who is rather stubborn, obstinate and committed to the traditions of his agricultural house. Peggy resolves to change him and the way she takes hold of him and his farm, his farm hands and his habits and modernize the whole shooting match is a pretty thing to see in the picture, which is full of humor and scenic beauty. It is a well acted photoplay, wonderfully well produced, but the magnetic star of all is Miss Hyland, who is a veritable feast to the eye. She looks—but here words fail us. Just come and see the picture and you will all fall in love with pretty Peggy.

RED CROSS NOTES

News of the passage of the "Sweet Bill" was not only the most important announcement to service men since the signing of the Armistice, but to Home Service Section of the American Red Cross as well.

The provisions in the bill, concerning increased compensation payments, retroactive to April 6th, 1917; and those of Insurance, affecting the large class of beneficiaries and lump sum payments, are of vital interest to ex-service men. The local Red Cross is ready and willing to give information and assistance concerning these new provisions.

Those inducted by the local draft board, but not accepted at camp and enrolled for active service, are included in the benefits of the act.

Lump sum payments are provided in converted insurance, and the class of beneficiaries has been enlarged to include uncles, aunts, nephews, nieces, brothers-in-law and sisters-in-law of the insured. Advance payments owing to a person who dies are made payable to his executor or administrator.

The local Home Service Section wishes to call the attention of ex-service men to the following:

No compensation for disability will be paid unless the claim has been filed within five years after discharge or resignation from the service or within five years after the beginning of disability if that occurs after leaving the service. The Director of the Bureau may extend the period for making application not to exceed one year for a given cause shown. These limitations, however, do not apply if a certificate of disability is obtained within one year after discharge. Whenever a physician's examination would disclose the slightest disability in a service man, he should obtain a certificate of disability so that he and his dependents will be protected in the years to come if his disability should increase. One part of Section 309 of the Act reads as follows: "No compensation will be paid for death or disability occurring later than one year after a man leaves the service unless, after medical examination made at the time of resignation or discharge or within a reasonable time thereafter (not exceeding one year), a certificate was secured from the Bureau of War Risk Insurance to the effect that the man at the time of discharge or resignation was then suffering from an injury or disease likely to cause death or disability later."

This provision as to a certificate is important because such a certificate, if procured, in effect, stops the running of the time limitation. Otherwise, recovery of compensation for disability or death which occurs later than one year after discharge or resignation will be barred even though the injury from which it resulted existed at the time of discharge or resignation or appeared within one year thereafter.

The local Red Cross would like to get in touch with all ex-service men to whom the above regulations apply. They will furnish and fill out the necessary blanks and make appointments with the Public Health physician who gives all examinations free of charge. The Red Cross office is in the Public Library Building, entrance on Sandy street.

WILL DRILL FOR OIL
ON MORGAN COUNTY FARM
C. P. Hutson left Wednesday for Decatur where he will close the deal for a number of Minneapolis tractors, for which he now has the agency in this territory. While in Decatur Mr. Hutson will also purchase a drilling machine from the Star Co., of that city. As soon as this machine arrives Mr. Hutson will commence drilling for oil on various tracts of Morgan county land.

It is understood that the first well will be located on the farm belonging to Andrew Ruble northeast of the city. Other test wells will be sunk in localities where Mr. Hutson has made preliminary investigation, and it is his belief that some interesting developments will follow. The new machine which Mr. Hutson will purchase will drill to a distance of 4,200 feet and is of the most of to date type.

GOOD RESULTS FOLLOW
IN COUNTY CANVASS

Solicitors For Membership to the Farm Bureau and Agricultural Association Are Meeting With Success.

The solicitors for membership in the Farm Bureau and Agricultural Association are meeting with satisfactory results.

The canvass in township 15-11 was practically completed yesterday by two teams composed of Harry E. Kitner, Pete Clauson, and Harold P. Joy, Truman Cowdin, and A. A. Hill. Altho the roads were heavy they brought in 25 new names. There is still some clean up work to do. J. P. Mason went to sale east of town and enlisted 12 men. M. A. Hulet brought in a new man.

The team at Chapin brought in 29 new names. Considering this only one-third of a congressional township the showing is very satisfactory.

Word was received from J. W. Graff of Prentice that he would meet four men at Ashland tomorrow morning. They will quite likely finish township 16-8 in time for the men to return to Jacksonville on the afternoon train. L. J. Stewart of Sinclair said that he would meet the remaining five men at Sinclair. He has all the drivers he needs and some to spare.

Chas. T. Gaines of Literberry notified the Farm Bureau office that township 16-10 was ready for the men Friday. He has plenty of reserve drivers.

W. Barry Brown, Campaign chairman, will be back on the job Thursday.

Talk About
Being Kiddled

Well, it seems that some one is kidding us all right, and we don't like it a bit. Goods ordered early last Fall for Spring trade, deliveries promised for the first of January, have not shown up and we can't find out anything about them. This is worse than being "kiddled" about prices, about which we told you a couple of weeks ago. Bad enough to have prices continually advanced on a fellow, but it is a mighty sight worse not to get the goods, at least when promised.

These are queer conditions under which we are living. It's no use kicking. The thing to do is to just keep smiling and plugging away, and if we all do that everything is sure to come out all right. BOOST! And talking about Boosting, hasn't it struck you that this old town is waking up and moving ahead? Well, it sure is, and is going to move faster. If there are any here who don't want it that way we hope their conversion will be immediate and sudden. All together, with cheerful optimism, mutual trust and confidence in each other's sincerity—Let's Go! Our good Mayor says that we can get anything we want if we will act together and go after it. Now's the time! .LET'S GO!

We have some fine medium weight woolens left from the season's business that we will sell at old prices. These will be perfectly suitable for Spring wear. If you are going to get a suit take our advice and have one made up from this stock. You will save money and be entirely satisfied.

AMERICAN LEGION BALL WAS GREAT SUCCESS

Attended by Over One Hundred and Fifty Couples—Orchestra Composed of Legion Members
Furnished Music.

That the dance given in Knights of Columbus hall by members of Jacksonville Post No.
279 American Legion was a big success was attested by over one hundred and fifty couples who were in attendance.

It was the largest crowd that ever attended a dance in the Knights of Columbus hall and there have been some big dances given there.

Much of the success of the dance was due to the work of the committee in charge which was composed of H. E. Woodman chairman, Elmer Henderson, Virgil Edwards and Fred Goodrick.
This committee worked hard and the manner in which the affair was conducted bespoke of well made plans which were carried out in every detail.

Music was furnished by the Legion orchestra composed of Fred Goodrick, director, saxaphone, Glenn Skinner, saxophone, Gladys Carroll, piano, Edward Tomlinson, banjo, Dick Reynolds, drums and Harlow Dunlap, violin.
The orchestra furnished excellent music and received many compliments.

Jay Rodgers of Waverly Post was one of the guests at the dance. Eighteen new names were secured which makes the total membership now 312.

During the evening free frappe was served for the dancers and the management also provided free check room privileges which were greatly appreciated.

Famous Old Recipe For Cough Syrup

Easily and cheaply made at home, but it beats them all for quick results.

Thousands of housewives have found that they can save twenty-five per cent of the money usually spent for copreparations, by using this w-known old recipe for making co-syrup. It is simple and cheap and has no equal for prompt results.
It takes right hold of a cough and g-immediate relief, usually stopping ordinary cough in 24 hours or less.
Get 2 1/2 ounces of Pinex from a druggist, pour it into a pint bottle and add plain granulated sugar sto make a full pint. If you prefer clarified molasses, honey, or syrup, instead of sugar syrup. This way, it tastes good, keeps perfect and lasts a family a long time.
It's truly astonishing how often it acts, penetrating through every passage of the throat and lungs,
loosens and raises the phlegm,
soothes and heals the membranes,
gradually but surely, the annoying throat tickle and dreaded cough di-appear entirely. Nothing better for bronchitis, spasmodic croup, hoarsness or bronchial asthma.
Pinex is a special ana, highly concentrated compound of genuine Norway pine extract known the world over for its healing effect on membranes.
Avoid disappointment by asking for your druggist for "2 1/2 ounces of Pinex" with full directions and don't accept anything else. Guaranteed to give absolute satisfaction or money promptly refunded. The Pinex Co.

HER BOY HAD ALWAYS BEEN WEAK AND PUNY

Now he eats everything in sight and romps with playmates.

"My four year old boy had been weak and puny since birth, and had constipation and indigestion. Nothing did him good until we tried Milk's Emulsion. Since using it, he can't get enough to eat and has outgrown his childhood trouble. He plays out with the children now, and he was never able to do that before."
—Wm. Hart, 424 Bundy Ave., New Castle, Ind.

Weak, ailing children usually start eating and getting stronger from the very first bottle of Milk's Emulsion.
Most children like to take it, because it really tastes good. A trial costs nothing.

Milk's Emulsion is a pleasant, nutritive food and a correct tonic.
It restores healthy, natural bowel action, doing away with all need of pills and physics. It promotes appetite and quickly puts the digestive organs in shape to assimilate food. As a builder of flesh and strength, Milk's Emulsion is strongly recommended to those whose sickness has weakened, and is a powerful aid in resisting and repairing the effects of wasting diseases. Chronic stomach trouble and constipation are promptly relieved—usually in one day.
It produces remarkable results in colds, coughs and bronchial asthma.
This is the only solid emulsion made, and so palatable that it is eaten with a spoon like ice cream.
No matter how severe your case,
you are urged to try Milk's Emulsion under this guarantee—Take six bottles home with you, use it according to directions and if not satisfied with the results, your money will be promptly refunded. Price six and $1.20 per bottle. The Milk's Emulsion Co., Terre Haute, Ind. Sold by druggists everywhere.

The Carpet Sweeper vs. the Broom

The broom stirs up a cloud of dust—part of which is breathed by the occupants of the room, leaving the rest to settle whence it came—
which means MORE work.

The Carpet Sweeper picks up all dust and dirt and deposits them inside the sweeper. This method REDUCES work.

Pushing a broom is drudgery.

Pushing a Carpet Sweeper, healthy exercise.

Its cheaper, too. One good Carpet Sweeper will last several times longer than the brooms that might be purchased with an equal sum.

RAL SERVICES FOR MRS. NANNIE MATHEWS

Pressive Services Held for Well Known Resident of City Wednesday Morning—Rev. W. H. Marbach and Dr. F. M. Rie in Charge of Services.

Funeral services of a most impressive character were held for the late Mrs. Nannie Hitt Mathews at 10:30 o'clock Wednesday morning. The services were held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Barron Jr., 857 West State street, and were attended by many of the natives and long time friends of the deceased.

The services were in charge of Rev. W. H. Marbach, pastor of the First Presbyterian church, which Mrs. Mathews had for years been a member. Mr. Marbach was assisted by Dr. F. M. Rie, who read a Scripture selection and offered prayer.

The music was furnished by a quartet composed of Mrs. A. R. Johnson, Mrs. A. Wehl, Mr. John Johnson and Dr. C. E. Magill, singing with beautiful effect, "I Love Thee Every Hour," and "The Home of the Soul." Mrs. Helen Ayers Bullard acted as accompanist.

The high esteem in which the deceased was held was evidenced by the floral tributes which were in great profusion and especially beautiful. Those having charge of the flowers were Mrs. E. E. Crabtree, Mrs. Lee P. Allcott, Mrs. Lloyd W. Brown, Mrs. W. W. Gillham, Misses Louise Holmes, Wilhelmina Miller and Eula Priest.

Rev. Mr. Marbach, following the singing of the first hymn, read from the Scriptures and offered a prayer. The minister spoke in a most impressive manner of the life of the deceased and drew therefrom many lessons for the living. He took as his particular theme the beatitude, "Blessed are they that mourn for they shall be comforted," giving special prominence to three points. The minister declared that first of all, "they that mourn" are comforted by the memory of a life spent in beautiful, unselfish service for others. They are comforted too, by the thought of the life in the future world—when loved ones are reunited. In the third place, he said, they are comforted by their faith in God, and the knowledge that He will guide them in the present life.

Following the service at the house the long cortege moved to Diamond Grove cemetery, where the remains were laid to rest. The brief committal service at the graveside was conducted by Rev. Mr. Marbach. The bearers were Lloyd W. Brown, E. W. Brown, Edward M. Dunlap, James Holmes, W. D. Hitt and T. M. Tomlinson. Among those from a distance who were here to attend the services were Elisha Mathews and Misses Helen and Ruth Mathews of Kansas City; Mr. and Mrs. Newton Mathews of Chicago.

NAME SUGGESTED FOR NEW LAKE

As suggestions for a name for our new body of water are in order, one occurs to me that seems appropriate, dignified and euphonious enough to suit the most fastidious, easy to spell and pronounce. Also a name that will inseparably connect the enterprise with the city and people who are making such a thing of beauty, joy and usefulness possible. The name may also be considered as a reward of merit to this same city and people who have willingly shouldered the burden of extra tax in order that Jacksonville may be a safer, healthier, happier place in which to live, and more inviting to business enterprise that may build up our city. The name Jackson Lake, or Lake Jackson is herewith submitted.

DO YOU KNOW—

(Member Illinois State Historical Society)

When your church was built?

The Methodists.

were first to organize a society in what is now Jacksonville. This was done in "Father" Wm. S. Jordan's log cabin, where Passavant Hospital now stands, in 1822. Jacksonville was laid out in 1825, and the members of this first church first worshipped in their houses, and after the log school house was built they and other denominations, had services in it. This was the place where Judge Wm. Thomas, a Methodist, had the first school here. It was about where the Lutheran church is now—E. College avenue, or East College street. In 1833 the Methodists put up the first brick church in town, on East Morgan street, north side, about east of the alley between the Square and East street.

The Methodists, about 1828-9, built a second brick church, afterwards known as the East Charge. It was about where the marble front building now is—occupied by the Jacksonville Tailors—two or three doors west of East street, and on the south side of East State street. This was a one story and basement building. It gave place, about 1869, to Centenary church, now standing on the south side of East State street, just east of the alley, east of East street, and this is much the finest of the three buildings. Brooklyn church was organized, and its house erected, on South East street, about 1867 and 1868.

But the West Charge organization had been made in 1856, worshipping first in the original First Presbyterian church at the northwest corner of State and Church streets. West Charge built its own edifice in 1851. This fronted east on Church street, between State and Morgan. The organization was re-named, and Grace church, fronting to State street, was built on the same lot, in 1872. Both of these were of brick. In 1909, in Rev. Mr. Tate's ministry the present elegant stone building was erected—on the same lot, but fronting east on Church street.

The Presbyterians.

Organized June 30, 1827, and built their first meeting-house and dedicated it June 19, 1831. It was a little frame building, at the northwest corner of State and Church streets, where the Baptist is now, and now stands, facing eastward, back of the Baptist church. This gave way, in 1848, to the First Presbyterian church, built of brick, and occupying the whole lot from State to Morgan streets, from West street east to the alley. It fronted north. This was a nice building, entered into in 1848, and burned in December, 1861. This was succeeded by the fine edifice, with high tower and town clock, which occupied the west part of the same lot, and also fronted north. It was occupied in 1867, and burned in 1883. The organization united with the Central and they became the State street church, in 1885. Their present house was completed and occupied in 1885.

The "Old School" or Second

Presbyterian church was organized in 1828, on the break in the national body, and built a good frame building right opposite where the First Presbyterian church was from 1848 to 1883. Upon the Re-union, in 1870, the "Old School" became the Central church, and removed to a fine brick house, at the northwest corner of State and Church streets, 1874. In 1897 this building was sold to the Baptists. Central uniting with the First, in the State street.

Westminster Presbyterian church, organized May 13, 1860, at once put up a good building at the northeast corner of Westminster street and College avenue. This fronted west. In 1899-1900 the organization built the (present) first stone church in Jacksonville, fronting south to College avenue.

There have been several church organizations of the Portuguese people resident here. The first was a suitable, good frame building at the southeast corner of Jordan and Kosciuszko streets. It was built about 1852. These people re-united later on, and built the fine Northminster church, occupying it in 1909.

The Episcopalians

organized in 1832, consecrated their goodly brick, facing south on Morgan street, on the east side of Church in 1836. In 1867 the building was remodeled and made to front on West State street. It burned in 1918. It was the first Presbyterian was next, and Westminster third. Trinity was the first Episcopal parish in Illinois. The ground where the church stood was given by Dennis Rockwell.

The Christians.

organized their society in 1832, occupied a place unknown to this writer from 1836, until 1850, when it put up a good brick building—a duplicate, in its one story and basement and general appearance of the West Charge Methodist of 1851—at the northeast corner of North and Main streets. They afterwards—about 1868—had a good building on East State street, north side, between East and Brown streets, much nearer East street. They had divisions and one or more additional buildings, until about 1905, when, in Rev. R. F. Thrapp's time they formed the Central Christian church, and built the handsome edifice at the southeast corner of College avenue and Church street.

The Baptists

The First Baptist church was organized in 1841, by Rev. Alvin Bailey, in Moore C. Goltz's house, where the open-air school house is now, first west of Grace church, on W. State street. An earlier society, in the county was the "Diamond Grove," of 1823.

Where the Baptists met, until 1845, the writer knows not, except in the Court House, but in 1845 they occupied a comfortable frame building just east of the first alley west of West street, on West State. In April 9, 1858 they dedicated a handsome brick building, exactly across State north of their first house. The brick church stood where Scott Block is now.

St. Emory Church.

a branch of the Baptist denomination is composed of colored people. The present creditable brick building, at the northeast corner of Church and Marion streets was erected about 1864 or 5.

The German Methodists

After the Baptists moved over to their new building, where Scott Block now is, the German Methodists took over the frame building formerly used by the Baptists. The Germans occupied it until Dr. Thompson put up his building, now on that site. They then had a building on the east side of Church street, north of West College avenue.

The A. M. E. Church.

The colored people had one or two buildings, the latter being burned about the Civil War days. They soon after got the present house on the north side of Marion street, between Church and West streets.

The Catholics.

The Roman Catholics first had a church building at the southeast corner of Sandy street and Lafayette avenue, which was built and occupied about 1851, a priest named Gifford, from Springfield, having organized the faithful—and when George Eberhart is mentioned as one of them, the word faithful stands forth brightly.

The Rev. Joseph Costa took charge of their affairs here during the Civil War, and he was of the progressive, upbuilding class of men. He began the present, fine, "Church of Our Savior", on East State street, north side, just west of Brown street, and probably completed it. But a number of improvements or embellishments have been added since.

The Congregationalists

organized their society in 1833, and occupied temporary quarters at the exact southwest corner of the Square, then at the northwest corner of West State street and the first alley west of the Square.

In 1835 they put up a white, frame building on the east side of the Square about half way between East State and East Morgan street. It was a one-story and basement building, with a cupola, and had the largest auditorium then in the town. It was sold to John Hockenfull in 1857, and the organization secured the lot at the northeast corner of College avenue and Kosciuszko street. They built their present good building on this lot, and it was dedicated in 1858, and has been the Congregational location ever since.

The Lutherans

organized a society about the Civil War times, and had a little frame building on the south side of College avenue, east of South East street. In 1875, or thereabouts, they took over the former Third Ward school house, straight south on the same block they had been in, but fronting on East College street. This school building the Lutherans remodeled and added to, and it has been their church home since.

About ten years ago the Second Baptist church was organized and put up a building on West street, between Marion and Anna streets. The members are colored people, and Rev. H. H. Dewitt is pastor.

day it was deemed best to remove her to the hospital, and she gradually grew worse until the end came as stated.

The deceased was born Feb.
15, 1875, near Charlottesville, Va., the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. T. A. Rice. In the earlier years of her life the family removed to Alton, Ill., which has since continued to be the family home. Deceased was educated in the public schools of Alton and later became a student at Shurt-leff Baptist college, Alton.

On September 10, 1900, the deceased was united in marriage to Rev. A. A. Todd, the two having been school mates at Shurt-leff college. They were the parents of one daughter, Margaret,
who together with the husband survives.

Deceased was a niece of the late Rev. Justus Bulkley, a prominent Baptist minister and for fifty years a teacher at Shurtleff college. In her earlier life Mrs.
Todd was much interested in literary work and was especially gifted as a reader. She has always been deeply interested in all church activities and more especially in the Young People's society, the Sunday school and the Missionary societies. Thruout the years of their married life she has been in every sense a helpmeet to her husband in his ministerial work. Her going means a distinct loss not only to the home circle but to the church and community as well.

Previous to coming to this city three and a half years ago the deceased was for five years a resident of St. Louis. Rev. Mr.

Todd has held pastorates in a number of Illinois cities and in the various communities in which the family has lived the news of the death of Mrs. Todd will come as a great shock.

Surviving are the aged father of the deceased, T. A. Rice, residing at Alton, Ill.; three sisters: Mrs. Lottie Stahl and Mrs.
Jennie Hilton, Moro, Ill.; Mrs.
Eula Ward, St. Louis; two brothers, John Rice of Valparaiso, Ind.
and Justus Rice, a medical student in St. Louis. The mother of the deceased passed away nineteen years since.

The final arrangements for the funeral have not yet been completed and will be announced at a later date. Interment will be made at Alton, Ill.

Little Hope of Relief For Victims of Catarrh

Unless Old-Time, Obsolete Treatment is Discarded.

Doubtless during the mild summer months you have enjoyed some relief from the disease because there is always less inflammation of the membranes during the summer, but do not make the mistake of thinking that your Catarrh is gone, for the very first raw, damp, wintry day, the delicate linings of the membranes will begin to again become irritated and sore, the air passages will begin to clog up, and soon you will find that your old enemy is still with you, with a fiendish intention of making the winter as full of discomfort as ever.

What are you going to do about it? If you have had the disease for any length of time, the chances are that you have used enough local remedies to convince you that there is no cure for you in this method of treatment. Are you going to drag through another winter hawking and spitting and spraying constantly in an effort to unclog the stopped up air passages so that you can get your breath for awhile, knowing that these accumulations will immediately reappear—or are you going to discard this makeshift treatment, and use a little intelligence in an effort to get rid of this disease that is such an annoyance and a constant handicap?

You must accept the teachings of science, which shows that to get rid of any disease, you must treat it at its source, you must direct your efforts toward removing its cause, instead of being satisfied with slight temporary relief from its symptoms. You must root out from your blood the millions of tiny germs which cause Catarrh, so that there can be no more inflammation of the nose and throat, and choked up nasal passages that make breathing difficult and painful.

S. S. S., the fine old blood remedy has given splendid results in the treatment of Catarrh, and you will be delighted with its effect on your case. It so purifies and cleanses the blood, that disease germs are eradicated, hence when the germ of your Catarrh are eliminated from the blood, you are on the right road to a permanent relief from the disease. Go to your drug store, and get a bottle of S. S. S. to day and begin the re-sultational treatment that will give real results.

If you will write our medical department, we will take pleasure in giving instructions regarding the treatment of your own particular case. Address Chief Medical Assistant, 15 Swift Laboratory, Atlanta, Ga.

A United States Army MAN

THERE is a Canal at Panama, linking two great oceans and carrying the commerce of the world.

For a hundred years and more men dreamed of that Canal. De Lesseps had the dream and failed, and the bones of men and wreck of machines remained to mark his failure.

It seemed a task almost impossible; yet that task was done.

It was done by United States Army men.

In Cuba and Porto Rico yellow fever once claimed victims by thousands.

Yellow fever is no longer a menace in those islands.
A great physician and his aids helped the people of those islands to conquer it forever.

And they, too, were
United States Army men.

In the Philippines a new civilization is arising; and its foundations are laid upon the courage and devotion of United States Army men.

You think of the Army as an instrument of war;
and well you may; for the record of its men in France and Flanders will live as long as history is written.

But the Army has tasks of peace no less heroic—tasks that mean a safer, and a better world.

It is for those tasks that the Army asks three years of the lives of America's best young men.

To those men the Army promises sturdy health—
an asset for their business success in all the years to come.

It offers them opportunity for training in a useful trade. It gives them good food, good clothes and good care. It trains them to responsibility,—it developes character and mind.

It promises them travel, and the knowledge of other lands, that will make them citizens of the world.

The United States Army seeks no inferior applicants. It wants men of whom it can be proud, during their enlistment, and in all the years to come.

Men who will look back twenty, thirty, forty years
from now and say:

"Those years were the most valuable of all my years of training.

"They gave me health, and skill, and the capacity for managing men. They gave me a chance to share in giant tasks.

"I am proud of the record of those years, and of what they have meant in my success.

"Proud that I, too, for a little while, was a United States Army man."

THE 14 ARMS OF THE SERVICE

The Recruiting Sergeant can give you the information that will help you decide which branch fits you best. In all of them you will get the fine training as a soldier that the United States offers all its men —in many branches you can get highly specialized training.

INFANTRY—The men who have made the name of "doughboy" feared and respected throughout the world welcome you to the comradeship. Fine fellows—good fun and good training in any school at the post you go to.

CAVALRY—When the horses are champing at the bit and the "yellow legs" mount up and the troop rides forth, there is a thrill that no old cavalryman can ever forget. A horse of your own—a good outdoor life and training for future success.

FIELD ARTILLERY—"Action Front" comes the command—then watch the boys with the red bat cord snap into it. A happy outfit—with the dash of mounted service added to interesting work that calls for head and hand. Motors if you wish.

CORPS OF ENGINEERS—Army engineering is known the world over for its excellence and an enlistment in the engineers can be the start of a young man's training in the various branches of engineering and in the mechanical and building trades.

COAST ARTILLERY—Living on the sea coasts, guarding big cities with big guns, getting time for study and a wide and good technical training, the C. A. C. man is preparing for a useful life and good pay and is having a good time while he's learning.
The C. A. C. also mans the mobile big gun regiments throughout the country.

AIR SERVICE (including BALLOON CORPS)
—The man who gets the early edge in experience with aeroplanes and balloons has a chance to cash in big on his army training. For flying is only in its infancy and it's going to be a profitable business for men with the right experience.

ORDNANCE DEPT.—The ordnance is appealing to the studious young American. To wide opportunities for study, it adds a business as well as a technical training.

SIGNAL CORPS—Whether it's laying a wire
from a reel-cart at a gallop or installing a wireless station that will flash its message half around the world, the Signal Corps is there, and a man who learns radio telegraph and telephone work in the Signal Corps is always valuable.

MEDICAL DEPT.—Good experience, good pay,
and training in all branches of hospital work. Excellent opportunity for future success. The Veterinary Corps teaches the care of horses as well as meat and milk inspection.

TANK CORPS—The man who knows gas motors and tractors or who wants to know them is invited to join the Tanks. Radio, machine gun and ordnance work are all parts of the Tank Corps work.

QUARTERMASTER CORPS—The Corps that feeds and clothes the Army offers a valuable training for future business. Interesting work for the man who likes horses in the Remount Service.

CONSTRUCTION DIVISION—Practical work in the many trades is part of the every day life of the Construction Division. Many opportunities to learn the trades of highly paid specialists.

CHEMICAL WARFARE SERVICE—For a man with a little knowledge of chemistry or for any ambitious young man who would like to get that knowledge, there is interesting work and rapid advancement in the C. W. S.

MOTOR TRANSPORT CORPS—A thorough practical training in motors and their accessories, and in driving as well, is given in the well-equipped schools of the Motor Transport Corps.

VIOLENT REACTION ON STOCK EXCHANGE

(By Associated Press.) NEW YORK, Feb. 4.—On transactions aggregating 1,750,000 shares, a total unequaled since the crash of last November, the stock market today experienced another violent reaction, in which various issues recorded extreme losses of five to seventeen points.

The movement was more directly traceable to another portentous collapse in foreign exchange rates on London, continental Europe, and several of the more central European countries continuing to crumble to quotations never before known.

There were other contributory cause, such as a 50 per cent rate for call money the virtual disappearance of time funds from the market and further withdrawal of government deposits to meet maturing obligations.

Exchange conditions were regarded as the most discouraging of these developments because of the most pronounced effect in the corn market was on quotations of nearby deliveries. Selling pressure became more and more evident until after mid-day, but then was somewhat offset by covering on the part of shorts and by a transient rally in sterling.

Oats paralleled the action of corn. Domestic distributors were said to have bought quite freely on the decline in prices.

Provisions decreased with hogs and grain. At one time, pork showed a break of more than $2 a barrel and lard and ribs $1.50 a hundred weight, the steepest fall in a long time.

Sales (par value) aggregated $22,750,000.

CIVIL WAR VETERAN
DIES AT WAVERLY

Aged Resident Found Dead in Bed—Had Suffered from Heart Trouble for Number of Years

Waverly, Feb. 4.—Nicholas Rice Walker, Civil War veteran, was found dead in bed at his home today by his daughter, Miss Nellie Walker.

He had been in failing health for some years but seemed to be in his usual health Tuesday. He went to the business section of the city about 5 o'clock Tuesday afternoon and retired early Tuesday evening.

This morning his daughter did not call him until about 8 o'clock. When he did not respond she entered his room and saw that something was wrong. Further examination showed that life was extinct.

Coroner Rose was notified and came to Waverly today and held an inquest. The jury was composed of William Graves, foreman; H. E. Jolly, L. T. Seales, George Alderson, Orrin McCormick and William Horstman, clerk.

The only testimony heard was that of Miss Nellie Walker and Lewis W. Walker, his daughter and son. This brought out the facts of his having suffered from heart trouble.

Nicholas R. Walker was born in Monmouth, Ill., October 10, 1842. His parents moved to Indiana when he was a small boy and he grew to manhood in that state.

When the war of the rebellion started he enlisted in the 23rd Indiana Infantry and served throughout the war.

At the close of the war Mr. Walker came to Illinois and settled at Waverly. In the early '70's he was united in marriage at Waverly, his wife preceding him in death in 1918. He leaves three sons, Lewis, John and Samuel, and four daughters, Mary, Nellie, Stella and Helen.

Funeral services will be held from the residence at 2:30 o'clock Thursday afternoon in charge of the Rev. F. E. Smith.

John Edgar Austin dies.

John Edgar Austin, aged 3 years, son of Mr. and Mrs. Edgar Austin, died at the family home at 12:30 o'clock this afternoon. Funeral services will be held Friday morning in charge of the Rev. F. E. Smith and will be private.

DAY OF PRAYER FOR COLLEGES.

Over the entrance to one of the colleges of Oxford, England, is this significant inscription: "For the Perpetuity of the Christian Church."

Colleges have been founded and are maintained for the development of Christian life and character. From the colleges of today will come almost all the leaders of tomorrow, in even greater measure than the leaders of today have come from the colleges of yesterday. Then men and women who will lead in the solution of our present perplexing problems of civic, commercial, political, educational, social and religious concern in the next generation are now mostly in our schools and colleges.

The future leaders need to be not only wise but good. They need to have not only clear and well trained minds but to have the spirit and life of Christ, pure hearts, trustful, dependence on God that casts out anxiety, forgiving spirits and unselfish sacrificing helpful hands. They need to be definitely committed to the program for the salvation of the world.

Thursday, Feb. 5th, has been set apart thruout the nation as a day of prayer for colleges. At the Woman's College special meetings have been going on during the week, under the leadership of Dr. Ernest L. Fletcher and the pastors of the Methodist churches in the city. On Thursday there will be special observance of the day; class prayer meetings from ten to ten thirty, a special service at ten thirty with sermon by Dr. Fletcher, and a college prayer service at two o'clock in the afternoon. Friends of the college are invited to these services.

We call upon all Christian people to join us in prayer that God's blessing may be upon the colleges, that presidents and faculties may have grace and wisdom and strength to meet well all their responsibilities, and that the students may dedicate their trained powers to the service of Christ and the helping of their fellow men and women.

FORMER RESIDENT INSTANTLY KILLED

Mrs. Ella Leedum Shot By Sister in Law—Cause of Shooting Attributed to Jealousy—Was Daughter of E. J. Combs of This City.

Mrs. Ella Leedum was shot and instantly killed in Springfield yesterday by her sister-in-law, Mrs. Ethel Leedum.

The cause of the shooting is attributed to jealousy and followed a number of quarrels between the two women it is said.

After the shooting Mrs. Ella Leedum ran into her apartment and locked herself in. She threw the revolver in a stove where it was found by officers when they broke into the apartment and placed her under arrest. She is being held at the police station without bond.

Mrs. Ella Leedum's maiden name was Ella Combs and she was the daughter of E. J. Combs of 719 East Lafayette avenue, this city. She was a daughter by Mr. Combs' first wife and has been living in recent years in Springfield. Mr. Combs was apprised of the tragedy and went to Springfield on the Wabash flyer this (Thursday) morning.

The murdered woman is the wife of Otis Leedum and her slayer is the wife of Paul Leedum. The men are brothers and resided in a large double house at 918 East Mason street. It is said the women have had frequent quarrels which were attributed to jealousy.

Wednesday afternoon about 3 o'clock a family by the name of Wallace was moving into one of the apartments and the Leedum brothers were helping them move. Mrs. Ella Leedum was standing in the hall on the second floor watching the men.

Mrs. Ethel Leedum came out of her apartment and walked partly up the stairs. She drew a revolver and fired at her sister-in-law, the bullet striking her under the right shoulder. Death was almost instantaneous.

The dead woman was born near Merritt 26 years ago. She has resided in Springfield for a number of years and was married about a year ago. She leaves her father, one half brother Dorothy Combs, one half brother Howard Combs, three uncles, James, William and Harry Combs of Exeter and her grandmother, Jane Combs of Exeter, who is 86 years of age.

It is not known what arrangements will be made for the funeral or where it will be held.
